Sheep Market Report

29TH OCTOBER 2025 - A YARDING 1,406 OF SHEEP & LAMBS, WITH 667 LAMBS AND THE BALANCE SHEEP.

Numbers eased on the last sale by nearly 2,000 head, with 5-20mm of rain across the district keeping a few stock at home. Not all processors were present, however the market was generally dearer overall for those operating. A few pens of extra heavy lambs sold $10-$15 dearer compared to the previous sale, while heavy lambs 26-30kg followed suit, selling $10-$20 dearer. New season shorn lambs made up the majority of the offering. Medium lambs to kill were also $10-$15 dearer on last sale, while very few light lambs were penned, selling firm to $10 cheaper overall. The best pen of hoggets this fortnight sold to a top of $244 for a pen of extra heavyweights. Heavy mutton sold $20-$30 dearer on last sale with the best of the crossbred wethers reaching $300, while medium weight 3-4 score sheep sold to a top of $260. The best merino ram made $207.
