Sheep Market Report

12TH NOVEMBER 2025 - A YARDING 1,406 OF SHEEP & LAMBS, WITH 667 LAMBS AND THE BALANCE SHEEP.

Numbers lifted this fortnight with a tidy run of shorn new-season lambs and an impressive line of hoggetts penned. All major processors were in attendance and competed in a market where lambs sold to dearer trends, while hoggetts and sheep were generally cheaper. Extra heavy XLs were slightly stronger, lifting $10/head on last sale, and heavy XLs also improved by $10/head, with some lambs potentially even dearer. Medium XLs to processors were $5-10 dearer, and light processing lambs saw similar $5-10 rises. Merino lambs reached a top of $285. There were plenty of well-finished hoggetts, with the best XHs selling to $244 and the top MH's also making $244, although hoggetts overall met cheaper trends, up to $25 easier. Heavy mutton followed suit, with the best XE topping at $240 and 3-4 score ME reaching $216, with heavy sheep $20-25 cheaper on last sale. The best pen of rams made $200.
