Sheep Market Report

27TH NOVEMBER 2024 - A YARDING OF 1,996 SHEEP & LAMBS, WITH 1088 LAMBS AND THE BALANCE SHEEP.

This fortnight's yarding was similar in size, featuring an abundance of high-quality lambs with excellent weight and condition. Despite the absence of some buyers, competition and bidding remained strong throughout the sale.

The event also featured a visit from Sarah Wheeler, who is undertaking a 5,500km solo ride to raise funds and awareness for the Pancare Foundation. During the sale, a number of lambs were donated by vendors and buyers with all proceeds going to the Pancare Foundation. Heavy XL lambs saw stronger trends, with prices increasing by $5-$10 in most cases. Medium XL lambs sold primarily between $183 and $225 per head, marking a $10 rise from the previous sale. Light lambs also experienced a $10-$15 price increase.

In the mutton market, heavy sheep prices were $25-$30 higher than the last sale, with the top crossbred ewes reaching $153.60 and the best Merino wethers fetching $130. Light sheep were $5-$10 dearer, while the best ram sold for $37.

35 years!

Celebrating 35 Years with Fleur!

Last Friday, Fleur marked an incredible 35 years at Milling Stuart. Well done, Fleur, and thank you for your dedication—here's to many more!

Joke of the week

On Christmas morning, a farmer walks out to his barn and finds all his animals chatting excitedly. Confused, he asks his prize cow, Bessie, "What's going on here?" Bessie replies, "We've all been working hard to get you something special this year, Farmer Joe." Curious, Farmer Joe asks, "What could you possibly get me?" Bessie smiles and says, "Check the tractor shed." Joe heads to the shed and finds his old tractor freshly painted, repaired, and decorated with Christmas lights. Amazed, he asks, "How did you manage this?" Bessie grins, "Well, let's just say the chickens egged us on, the pigs made sure it wasn't a boar-ing job, and the horse pulled some strings to get it done in time!" Farmer Joe laughs and says, "Moo-erry Christmas to all of you!"
